Mission Statement

The Columbia Congregational United Church of Christ as part of the United Church of Christ and the worldwide Christian Church is called by God to be disciples of Jesus, the Christ. Therefore, the mission of the Columbia Congregational United Church of Christ is to worship God and to preach and teach the Gospel of Christ: to promote Christian fellowship among our members and friends, and to live in Christian fellowship with the Church Universal and the whole creation; that we might live faithfully, serving God and humanity, and striving for righteousness, justice, and peace.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PORCH

“We wait not for blessings from afar but for [God]
the very Soil of our soul.”

John Philip Newell*

As the last leaves drift to the ground, I begin to be filled with anticipation for the first snow. I delight when the first flakes swirl down to the trees, bushes and fields, covering them with a blanket of a million crystals. But I also know that we enter a time of anxiety about the diminishing sun light and the possibility of significant snow fall.

Advent is a mix of anticipation, anxiety and impatience as we wait for the coming reign of Christ.

Our church year does not begin with the resurrection, that joyous moment of assurance of our salvation, the bursting forth of new life accompanied by bird song in delight of the warming sun. Rather it begins with a time of waiting filled with anticipation-without knowing what exactly is coming-and increasing darkness. The liturgical year leads us to dig deeper than what lies on the surface of life.

Joan Chittister, a Benedictine sister, writes ‘Advent is about learning to wait ...[while staying] in the present, knowing that only the present well lived can possibly lead us to the fullness of life.’ ** We can get so wrapped up in the preparation for what/who is to come, that we overlook small wonders and joys of each day. We sprint to the finish line, exhausted, having missed the beauty of what lies on the sidelines; the heart beats of those running with us; and the feel of the earth beneath our feet. Advent, paced out, slows us down in the waiting time so we can consider what star we are following, where we are searching for the light in the soul, and what determines the reason for our existence.

This Advent we are trying something new. In the lighting of the Advent Wreath Candles, we are combining choir, bells, congregational singing, responsive reading, candle lighting and prayers. Each Sunday will bring us toward lives of hope, peace, love and joy until on Christmas Eve we rejoice in the flame of the Christ candle which opens our eyes to God's everlasting light and we come to adore Christ, the newborn King. All of this may slow our worship down a bit, but that just might be a good thing. My hope is you will enter into the moment and allow the Holy Spirit to feed your soul with sound, word and light in this waiting time.

Also new this year is the Early Christmas Eve service will be at 5:00 and will include a children's time in the midst of lessons and carols, provided we have 2 or more children in attendance. There will NOT be a 7:00 pm service. The 10:30 service will be the traditional lessons and carols with choir.

As we enter Advent on November 29th, let us take a deep breath, exhale slowly and open ourselves to the work of the Holy Spirit.

May your Advent and Christmas experience be rich with blessings of hope, peace, love and joy.

*Merry Christmas,
Pastor Betsey*

Advent Readers Needed

Every Sunday in Advent includes readings and lighting candles on the Advent Wreath. This year we are including music sung by the choir and joined by the congregation and accompanied by hand bells. As in past years we are looking for families, or friends to participate in this part of the service. This is an important step to ushering in Christ's birth.

Please sign up to help us worship during Advent. Contact the church office or Pastor Betsey.

We need readers for Dec. 6, Dec. 13, Dec. 20 and Dec. 24 (5:00 and 10:30pm)

~CHRISTIAN EDUCATION~

I was in search of a quote that exemplified what we learn in church school and I found this quote by Ruth Carter Stapleton, “Christmas is most truly Christmas when we celebrate it by giving the light of love to those who need it most”. We hope the joy of brightening other’s lives, helping to bear each other’s burdens and helping to fill empty hearts and lives with generous gifts becomes the magic of Christmas for us all.

CHURCH SCHOOL WILL PRESENT “THE FIRST CHRISTMAS” December 20, during the Worship service. We are looking for adults to participate as townspeople, shepherds, Wiseman and angles. If you are interested please see Jean Murphy for details.

Remember JOY stands for Jesus first, Others second and Yourself third. I hope there is JOY in your Holidays!

Blessings to all,
Jean

WINDHAM AREA INTERFAITH MINISTRY
PARTNERS IN INDEPENDENCE
MENTOR/LEARNING PARTNER PROJECT

WAIM will be conducting the next series of Mentor training sessions for the Partners in Independence Project (PIP) soon. PIP is designed as a community solution to assist individuals and their families in reaching economic security.

Who can be PIP Mentor? Many different types of people make good mentors. WAIM is seeking mature adults who are hoping to share the benefits of their “life experience” and are willing to devote at least one year to working with a Learning Partner.

What does a PIP Mentor do? The volunteer Mentor creates a supportive relationship with an adult Learning Partner who benefits from the Mentor’s guidance and experience. They work together to improve the Learning Partner’s ability to identify strengths and barriers while increasing his or her capacity to progress toward financial, housing, education and employment goals. Mentors, after having been matched with a Learning Partner, develop a more profound appreciation of the challenges many individuals face and the focus needed to bring about change.

What impact can I expect to have on someone as a PIP Mentor? After meeting with their Mentors for several months, comments by Learning Partners include: “The best thing is having someone to talk to,” “I’m more open- used to keep things bottled up but now my relationships are more positive.” “I feel more empowered, more positive about my ability to help myself, more able to meet challenges and more engaged.

What’s the training like? The potential Mentor, wishing to share her/his experience and insight will participate in five two-hour discussion modules usually completed in approximately ten weeks. Although there are many programs and professions already assisting individuals and families facing difficult challenges, the role of Mentor, as coach, guiding a Learning Partner through a thoughtful and directed process, encourages the Learning Partner to make more positive and informed choices that will lead to economic independence and stability.

Become a PIP Mentor and help someone change his or her life.

Please contact Adrienne Marks, Project Coordinator, for

Church Quips and Quotes

~Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited until you try to sit in their pews.

~The good Lord didn’t create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.

~Be ye fishers of men. You catch ‘em – He’ll clean ‘em.

~Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.

~God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage.

“I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you show love to one another.” John 13:34-35

We seek to be a loving and caring church community, contributing our time, our resources, and our love to help and support each other in times of need. This is the goal of our Care Team. We have a group approximately 12 members of our congregation that have signed up to offer their help with transportation, meals, short term chores or just a presence offering concern and fellowship. These volunteers do not replace Pastoral visits or calls. Should you or anyone that you know need a little TLC from our Care Team, please contact Sue Milici at 860-228-4427 or email smilici@earthlink.net New volunteers are always welcome.

Co-Sponsorship of Syrian Refugees

North-Eastern Region of CT

Churches and Meeting Houses are partnering to sponsor 1 or more refugee families in the Quiet Corner. The Mansfield Center Congregational Church has agreed to coordinate the group. WAIM Area Interfaith Ministry clergy group and WAIM executive director are also enthusiastically on board.

The group has been in conversation with Chris George, executive director of Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services (IRIS). Information has been posted on the bulletin board outside the Parish Hall.

It could be spring before we receive a family, but there is much work to do in preparation. Consider what you/we are able to do. Working together with 6 or 7 other faith groups reduces the work load on any one community, but requires coordination. Put your name on the list of those willing to work on this important and faithful mission.

Collect furniture for a family

Find an apartment (often churches own property or have a vacant parish house.) Willimantic was mentioned as a possible settlement town since it has a hospital, grocery, drug stores and schools in walking distance.

Pay the first 2 to 3 months of rent (this comes to about $3,000)

Collect clothing and food for a family

Set up the apartment (a few days before the family arrives)

Meet the refugee family at the airport, or at the Limo station, when they arrive; and drive the family to their new home

Cook a “culturally appropriate” hot meal to serve the family when they arrive

Drive the family to appointments: DSS, Social Security, IRIS office, DMV

Arrange for health care appointments and drive the family to and from

Register the children in schools

Teach the family English and help the children with homework

Show the family how to take public transportation, where to launder clothing, where and how to shop

Help the adults find jobs
